FORWARD

All members "new" and "old" are required to read these By-Laws and Rules/Regulations. In addition, each member is required to convey them to his family and guests. They have been formed over many years to provide enjoyment and safety for all members, their families, and visitors. If a member sees need for a new regulation or is dissatisfied with a current one, he is invited to present his opinion verbally at a regular meeting or in writing to the Board of Directors. Members are urged to print and keep this booklet in a convenient location.

New By-Laws, Rules and Amendments will be published on the club website www.bobwhiteclub.org as they become effective.

ARTICLE XVIII – Orientation of New Members

All new members must attend an orientation session and must complete this session within 30 days of being voted into the club by the membership. The Vice President can make exceptions.

Any new member not completing his orientation session within 30 days of his elections will be removed from the membership and have his annual dues and initiation fees refunded to him minus a $50.00 handling fee.

Security cards will be distributed at the orientation meeting.

The Vice President, his designated representative(s) or an officer of the club will only handle Orientation.

The board of directors can approve exceptions and variances.

ARTICLE IX Voting Procedures

1. Voting for new members

Voting will be done by written secret ballots.

In order for the negative votes as discussed below, to be valid, either of the following conditions must be met:

- a. Person or persons casting negative vote(s) each voice their substantiated objection immediately after the announcement of results, or at the next Board of Directors meeting. The members present are to vote, by 2/3 majority, as to whether the substantiated objections are valid and for the good of the Club.
- b. Person or persons casting negative vote each submit to the next Board of Directors meeting a letter (signed or unsigned) substantiating their objections. The Board of Directors will determine, by a 2/3 majority, if the substantiated objections are sufficient to warrant a valid negative vote and is for the good and welfare of the Club.

If either condition (a) and or (b) is not met, the negative vote(s) are considered invalid.

One negative vote is overlooked. Two valid negative votes merit an investigation. When two valid negative votes are cast, the Board of Directors has the authority to accept or reject membership based on the investigating committee's report.

Three valid negative votes reject membership.

2. General Voting

Any member may vote on all Club business brought before the Club.

All members shall have but one vote. The President shall have the right to vote, subject to Robert's rules of Order.

Any member may appeal to the membership for a vote on any action taken by the Board of Directors at the meeting when such an action is announced to the Club.

ARTICLE XX Rules Violation

It is the responsibility of all members to abide by these By-Laws and Rules. Members should also advise others of violations and, if serious, advise the Board of Directors of violators. Serious violations, such as:

- a. Willfully destroying Club property,
- b. Allowing anyone (wife, children) under 21 behind the bar.
- c. Endangering others with firearms.
- d. Bringing beer or soft drinks on the Clubgrounds.

Can result in the revocation of your membership by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XXI Priority Committee and Annual Budget

1. A budget of $ 7,500 will be made at the January Board of Directors meeting for the Priority Committee's allocation for Board approved projects during that year. Budget may be adjusted according to funds generated by new members initiation fees.
2. Any non-emergency maintenance or capital improvement costing over $500.00 must be presented at a General Membership or Board of Directors meeting. The project in its entirety, including plans, will then go to the Priority Committee for inclusion on the Priority List and presentation to the Board of Directors for action.
3. The Financial Secretary shall present to the Board of Directors at the February meeting a list of customary annual expenses. All Committee Chairs will have until the March Board meeting to request changes to the customary expenses. The Board of Directors will then develop and recommend a budget to the general membership for approval. Any changes to the budget must have Board of Directors approval. The Priority Committee shall meet, when necessary, at the discretion of the committee.

ARTICLE XXII FUND RAISING

1. All fund-raising events on club grounds shall be for the BobWhite Club. No other type of fund raising is permitted. The event chairman for all fund-raising events will turn into the Club Treasure a detailed income and expense report at the conclusion of each event.
2. This will not limit the club from donating to a supported organization any profit derived from fund raising activity. Such donation must be made by check and have the approval of the Board of Directors and General Membership.
Approved 1-15-13

Before any bill is paid it must be submitted to the Treasure with a copy of the receipt or bill. NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE ALLOWED if you do not submit a business receipt it will not be paid.

1. Any event Chairman must present to the Treasure in a timely fashion a full explanation of all income of money and a full explanation of all expenses.

2. No reimbursements until a full written report has been turn into the Treasure. This includes any annual event or actives, Such as Ham and Turkey shoots, All Trap programs, Horseshoes, Archery, bowling, Easter egg hunts, rifle and pistol shoots, and any other event approved by the Board of Directors. Report can be submitted at the conclusion of the event if it is a multi date event.

3. All event will be required to not spend more money than received by charging a fee, unless approved by the Board of Directors before the event. Some events that do not create an income such as Easter Egg Hunt are excused but will be limited by amounts set by the Board of Directors. This includes cost of awards; all awards must be paid within budgeted money. The treasure will not reimburse funds greater than what the event generated.

3. All outside actives using the grounds and equipment are required to provide a full report of the actives in a timely fashion and are expected to pay for their fees on the day they use the club. No outside actives will pay less for use of the club than what is charged for normal club members on the day it occurs. Example at this time trap is $2.50 per round so they would be required to pay at least $2.50 for each round of trap their organization shoots. (Price subject to change) Exceptions allowed if approved by the Board of Directors before their event.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS for contracted work at the Bob White Club

It is the policy of the Bob White Club to pay for contracted work when the job has been finished, inspected by the Club's designated representative, and accepted as complete and satisfactory. Any request for partial or progress payment(s) before the contracted work has been completed must be fully detailed and must be submitted as part of the prospective contractor's Proposal, before the Club awards any contract to perform the proposed work. Payments will be made only as described below, unless the Board of Directors agrees to alternative terms prior to award of a contract.

As part of their bid, prospective contractors must provide a detailed written statement of all payment and performance terms and conditions under which they propose to perform the service or work for the Club.

Prompt completion of work, in full compliance with specifications and in the time promised, is very important to the Bob White Club. A detailed project time line (either illustration or written narrative), with dates by which each phase or portion of the proposed project will be completed, must be submitted as part of each bid. Partial payments will not normally be approved by the Club for work that falls significantly behind the agreed schedule.

All payments, including any partial payments agreed to as part of a contract, must be approved by the Club's Board of Directors. (Regular Board meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month.) The Board will consider requests for payment only after the work (or portion of work) invoiced is complete and has been approved by the Club's representative. Approved payments may be made immediately following each Board meeting.

Contractors must have and keep in force policies of Workmen's' Compensation Insurance covering all employees (including subcontractors' employees) while on Club property, plus General Liability Insurance in an amount not less than $ 1,000,000.00. Both must be underwritten by insurance companies lawfully authorized to do business in Kentucky. Contractors shall cause the Bob White Club to be named as an additional insured on such policies and shall furnish the Club with written certificates of such insurance prior to the commencement of work. Such insurance shall contain a provision requiring 30 days' notice to the Club before cancellation or lapse of the coverage.
