Increased costs are what caused the raise in fees.

THANK YOU !

On July 30th the spillway for Weyer Lake was repaired.

I would like to thank all those who showed up to help.

A special thanks goes to Bobby Bevins of Robert Bevins Concrete for his expertise and crew and equipment for getting this project completed. He supplied materials at his cost and charged no labor.

To all those who worked, another special thank you, is due.

Wayne Crowder of Jolly Plumbing for providing the backhoe, which was used to clean out the debris below the spillway.

Ed Schumann who provided the bulldozer which was used to clean the area around and below the spillway.

Dr. Mike Shafer, in the pit
Don Smith, in the pit
Bruce Works, in the pit
Tim Hofstetter, in the pit
Darren Curtis, bobcat operator
Kevin O'dell, bobcat operator and coffee drinker while operating bobcat. He's good!
Dylan Curtis, bobcat operator and equipment cleanup guy
Bobby Bevins, in the pit
Bobby's two employees, in the pit, (sorry, don't remember their names)
Frank Thompson, on the tractor with wagon, water boy and get this for me guy
Joe Cottingham of Cottingham True Value Hardware, supplied 2nd bobcat at no charge.

If I have overlooked anyone I apologize. It was a long morning.

Concrete arrived at 6:15am and caught us a little off guard. Truck was to arrive at 6:30am. Crew assembled quickly and the pour started at 6:35am. Pour completed at 9:30am and that included a 30 min wait for the second truck to arrive. Bobby and his crew finished the pour and were out of the pit by 11:00am. We were fortunate that rain held off. Lunch and drinks were provided for all.

Stop over at the spillway and have a look and if you see any of the above, tell them thank you.

Sincerely,

Bobby Smith, the guy who likes to fix things
